SEVEN GRANDFATHER TEACHINGS AND MEDICINE BAGS

Join facilitator Jake Charles from First Nation Cultural Tours to learn about the Seven Grandfather Teachings and make a personal Medicine Bag

Saturday October 19, 2024
10:30 a.m.
Beaverton Branch

The seven Grandfather teachings are a set of Anishinaabe guiding principles that provide the tools to lead a good life. They have been passed down over generations for thousands of years through stories and ceremonies.

A personal Medicine Bag may contain objects that symbolize personal well-being and tribal identity

Space is limited - please register on or after September 3 by calling or visiting the Beaverton Branch at 705-426-9283

*This program is FREE for ages 14+

BOOK CLUB

GREENWOOD
BY MICHAEL CHRISTIE
SATURDAY, SEPT 28
SUNDERLAND BRANCH
10:00-11:00 A.M.
DROP-IN

A magnificent novel of inheritance, sacrifice, nature, and love that takes its structure from the nested growth rings of a tree, Greenwood spans generations to tell the story of a family living and dying in the shadows cast by its own secrets.

HORSE
BY GERALDINE BROOKS
SATURDAY, OCT 26
SUNDERLAND BRANCH
10:00-11:00 A.M.
DROP-IN

Based on the remarkable true story of the record-breaking thoroughbred Lexington, Horse is a novel of art and science, love and obsession, and our unfinished reckoning with racism.

Pick up a copy at the Sunderland Branch or place a hold to have it sent to your closest branch. Check out Libby for more availability options (eBooks/audiobooks).
